CASTLEVIEWS

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

1967

VOLUME VIII

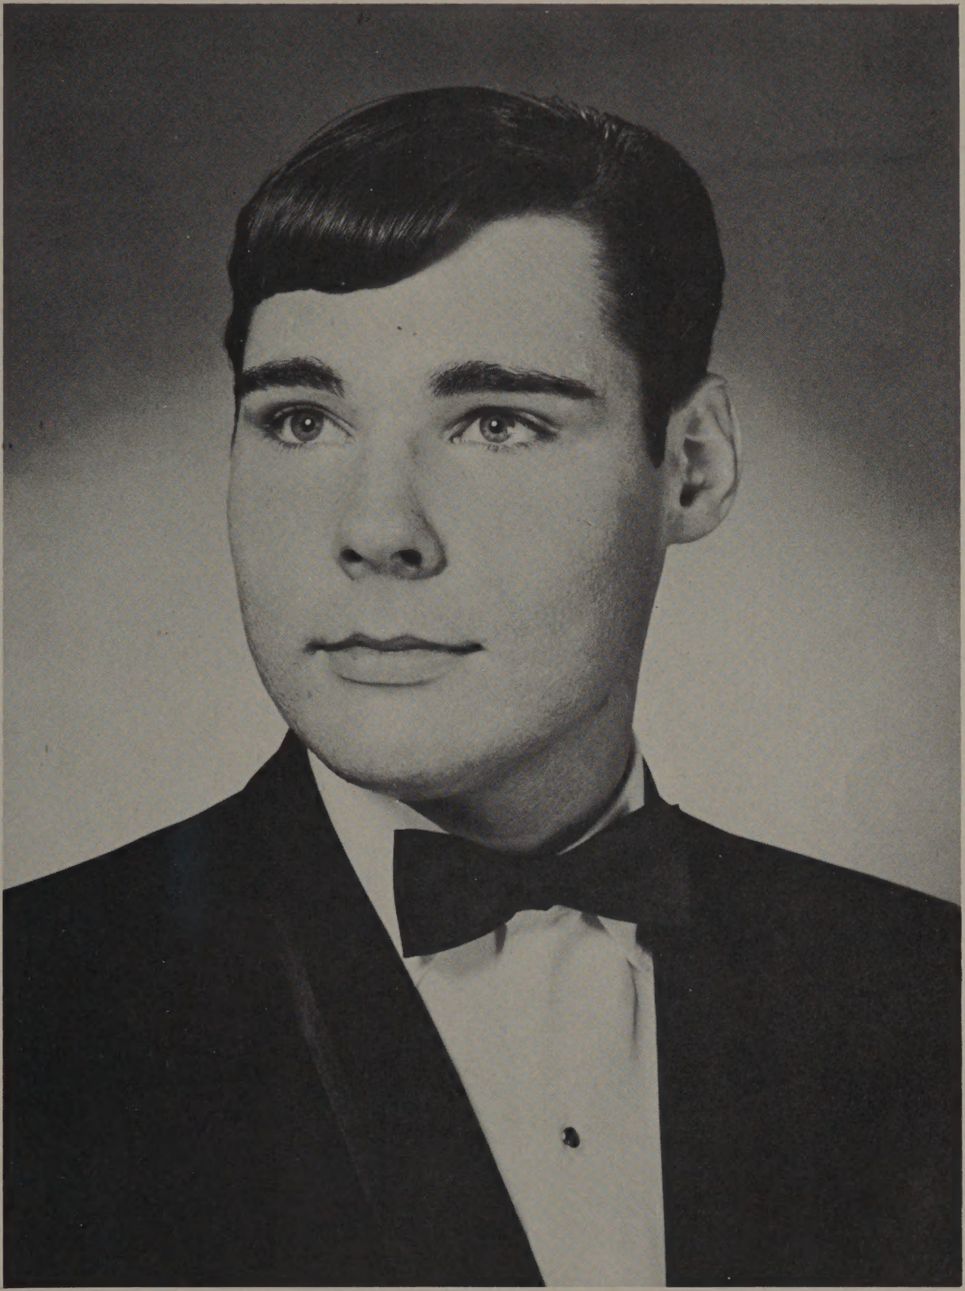
Clean classrooms, shining halls, sanitary restrooms, unlittered grounds, well kept shrubs, safe environment—these have been his interests in our behalf. In appreciation for this, we dedicate this issue of CASTLEVIEWS to our own—

Mr. Warren Mathews, Head Custodian at C.H.S.

THE STAFF

A TRIBUTE

TO

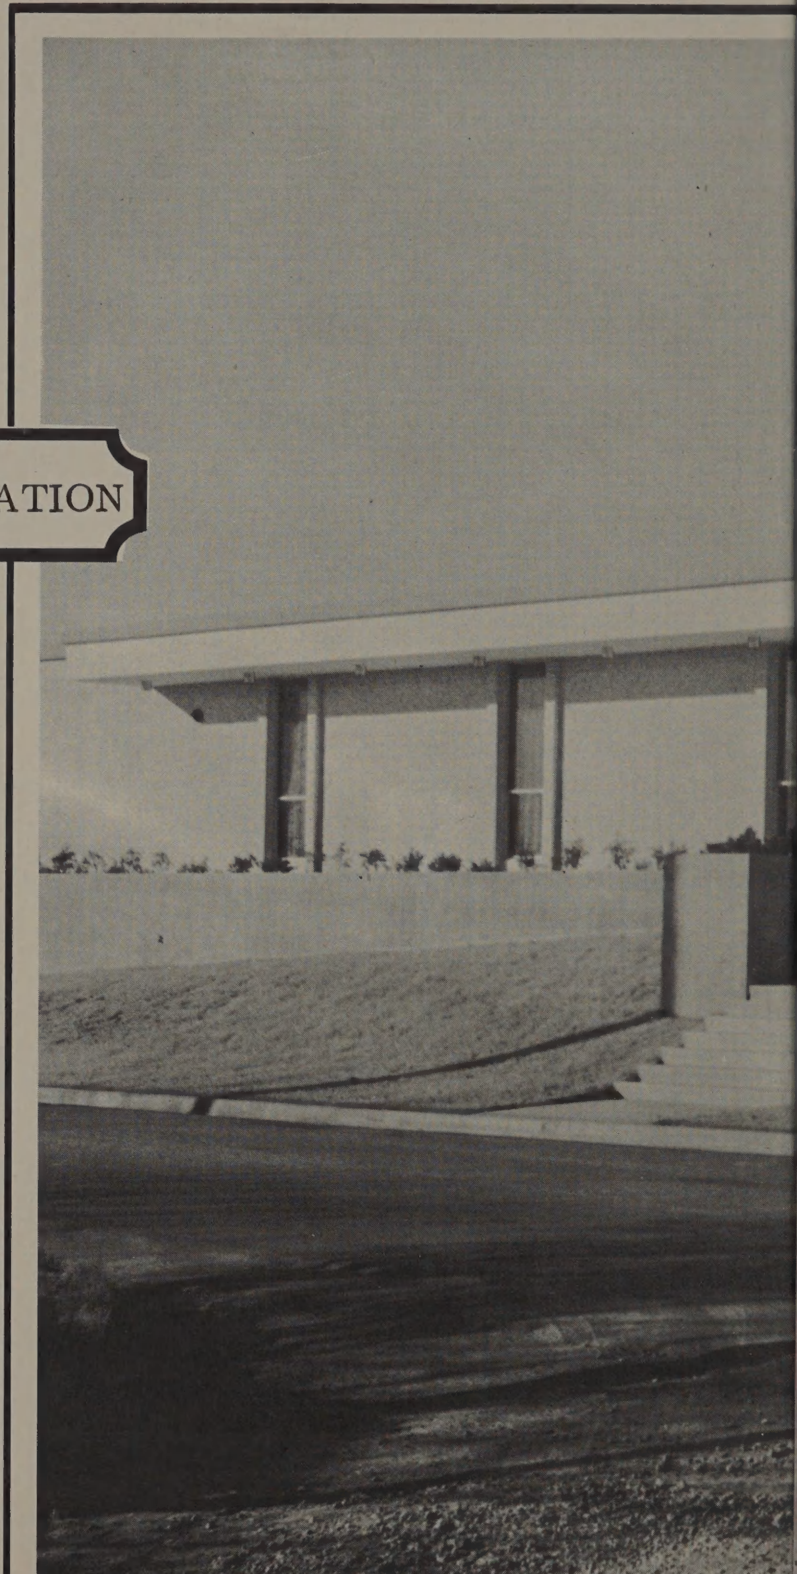


BILL WAFER

His undaunted spirit of determination; his faith and courage in the face of overwhelming odds make Bill an inspiration to all who know him.

THE STAFF

ADMINISTRATION



ADMINISTRATION BUILDING
CASTLEBERRY SCHOOL DISTRICT

The major objective of the Castleberry High School is to provide a planned educational program which will lead to discovering varying potentials and meeting the needs and interest of each individual enrolled. We want our school to have an educational system which promotes the fullest individual realization for all races, classes, faiths, and nationalities. To attain this objective it is necessary to provide a broad and flexible curriculum in each area of learning designed to meet the local need of its students. Students should explore all avenues of learning and should continue to travel the roads that lead to the ultimate goal, a high school diploma.

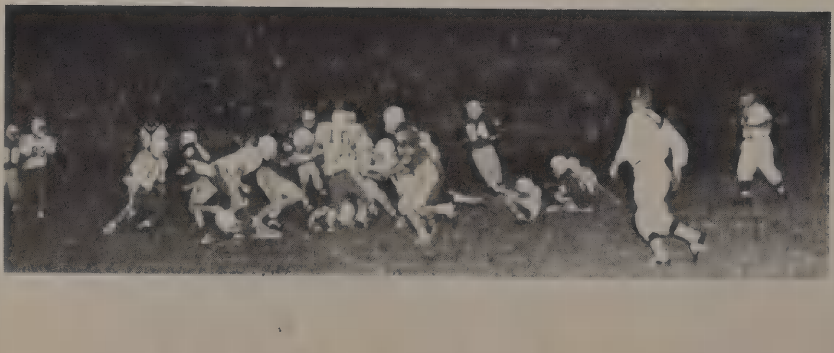
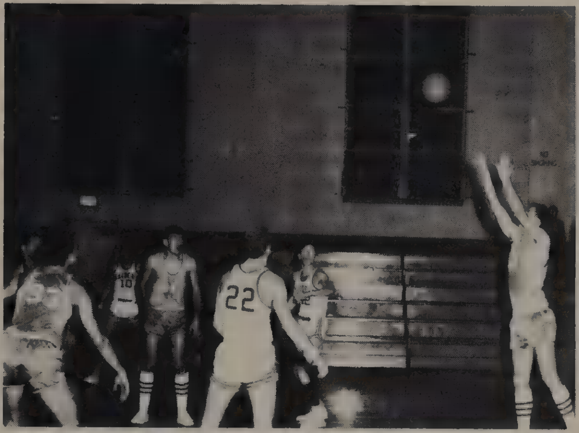
Boy, talk about weird looking football players.

Don't just stand there, somebody help me up!

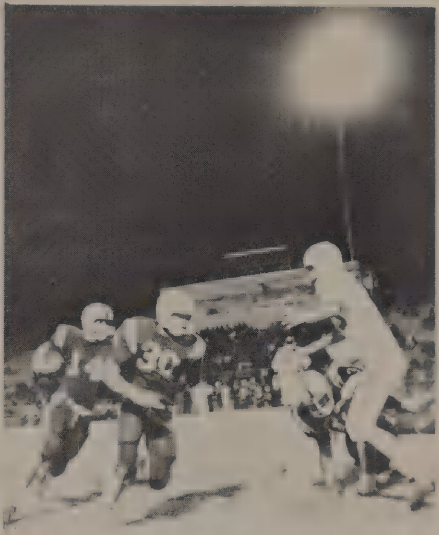


Togetherness.

QUIRKS



I've got it! I've got it!



By the light of the silvery moon.

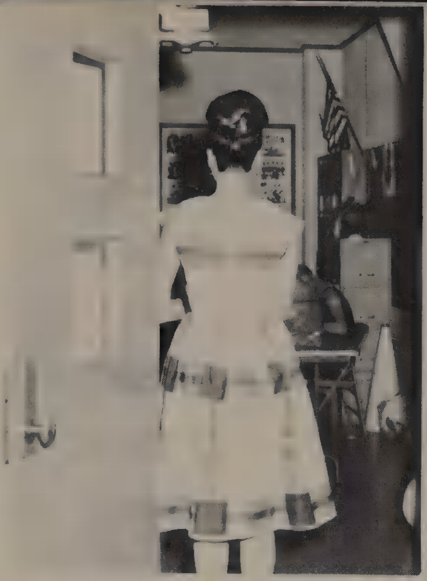
Trials and tribulations of being the only boy cheerleader.

Something tells me that I forgot to use my Ban Roll On.

Gang way, here we come!

THE END.

ACTIVITIES



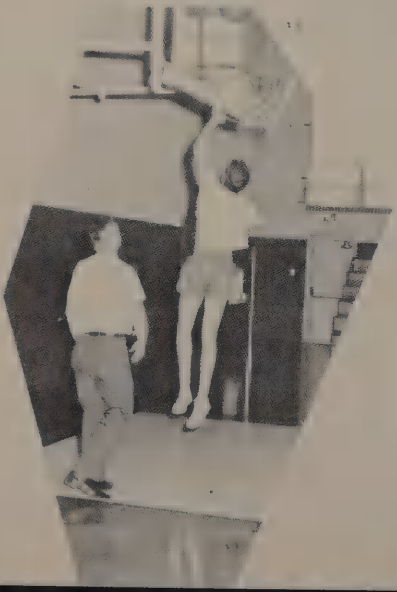
Talk about backward schools

We couldn't think of anything to say

"Duh, what's up Doc?"

And they say school isn't boring . . . However it keeps some people jumping.

Are you sure Michelangelo started out this way?



Some people will date anybody.

Books, books everywhere. . .

Just MILLing around.

No Vacancy
